

Since 2016, in commemoration of the United Nations International Day of Peace on September 21, Peace Run has proudly organized exhibitions of artwork created by primary and secondary school students from around the globe.

Their masterpieces have graced extraordinary venues—from the historic Colosseum in Rome to national parliaments and schools worldwide—each piece conveying a powerful message of unity, peace, and hope. Aptly named "Colors of Peace," this initiative presents a vibrant vision of a better world through the imaginative eyes of our young creators.

Over the years, Colors of Peace has earned the patronage of esteemed institutions such as the Chamber of Deputies of the Italian Republic, the Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities, and the High Patronage of the European Parliament.

Now, we are excited to extend our global engagement by inviting schools to contribute Peace Poems, providing students with a unique opportunity to reflect on the theme of peace and express their aspirations through verse.

We warmly invite you, dedicated educators, to join us in nurturing the voices of tomorrow and fostering a spirit of unity and understanding in your classrooms.

Join thousands of children around the globe and share
your heart's dreams of Peace.
